*The Senior Class
Proudly Presents*

WILMINGTON AREA HIGH SCHOOL
NEW WILMINGTON, PENNSYLVANIA

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven . . . A time to be born and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to reap . . . A time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance . . . A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace . . . That which hath been is new, and that which is to be hath already been.

Dedication

Tomorrow is the future, with challenges of which we are yet unaware. Today is the present with claims on our time to keep us preoccupied. But yesterday! Ah, yesterday! In retrospect we see more clearly and find you good. With nostalgia and not a little regret, we dedicate this book to times gone by . . . to all our yesterdays.

The theme of your Yearbook this year has to do with "time." This is most appropriate, since one of the main objectives of education in a free society is to assist the individual student to develop a set of values and patterns of behavior which will cause him to use his full time and energy to good advantage. For the individual who succeeds in establishing such values and patterns of behavior, life is likely to be richer and fuller, and the community in which he lives better than it otherwise would be.

It is our sincere hope that each of you as you assume the responsibilities of adult life will be determined to direct your time and energy in such a way that you will be happy and successful, and will make positive contributions to the community, state, and nation in which you live.

Hubert J. Sherwood

Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Class of 1967.

I hope all of you become known as winners, not losers by following a few simple rules.

A winner says, "Let's find out"; a loser says, "Nobody knows".

When a winner makes a mistake he says, "I was wrong"; a loser says, "It wasn't my fault".

A winner works harder than a loser, and has more time; a loser is always "too busy".

A winner makes commitments; a loser makes promises.

A winner shows he's sorry by making up for it; a loser says, "I'm sorry", but does the same thing the next time.

A winner says, "I'm good, but not as good as I ought to be"; a loser says, "I'm not as bad as a lot of other people".

A winner feels responsible for more than his job; a loser says, "I only work here".

A winner respects those who are his superiors and tries to learn from them; a loser resents those that are superior and tries to find chinks in their armor.

Mr. David C. Lewis

TOMORROW ... that time which makes yesterday today ... most class historians would praise all the yesterdays for bringing the Class of '67 to its present, but I would recall instead all the hectic, healing, humorous "mornings after" ... the glorious tomorrows.

... In our activities—

The healing tomorrows after that fateful fall evening in '64 when the last official "Who's Who" was held, leaving us with much to remember, including a few bruises.

The tomorrows that smoothed all the ruffled feathers after our great ring debate, and the prestige we acquired by being the class to pick the design and to standardize it.

The tomorrows after our first stage production, "Charley's Aunt", which saw us make a hit in the theatrical world with that line, "Charley's Aunt from Brazil, where the nuts come from."

The tomorrows after our two big dances, the Sweater Hop and Prom—"Our Place" & "Bon Voyage"—which left us with new kings and queens, memories enough to fill anyone's scrapbook, and 144 cases of fatigue.

The day after didn't let us down as it saw us present WAHS' first serious play "A Man Called Peter" and make a huge success of it.

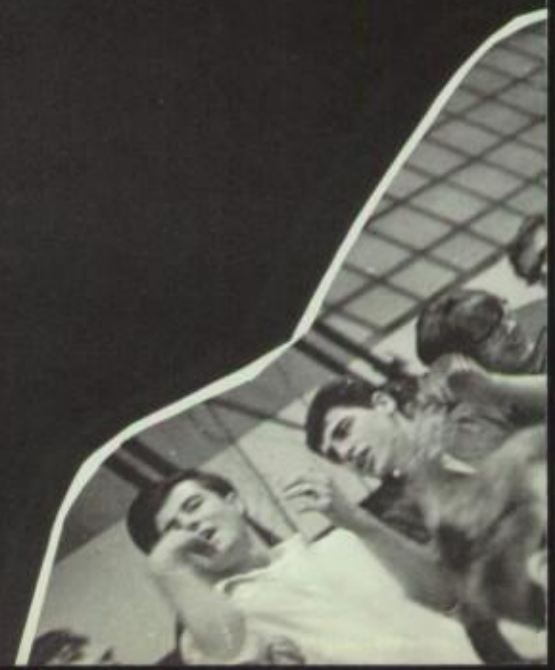

... In our sports—

The tomorrow after our first football defeat in 26 games taught us to take our shortcomings like the champions we really are.

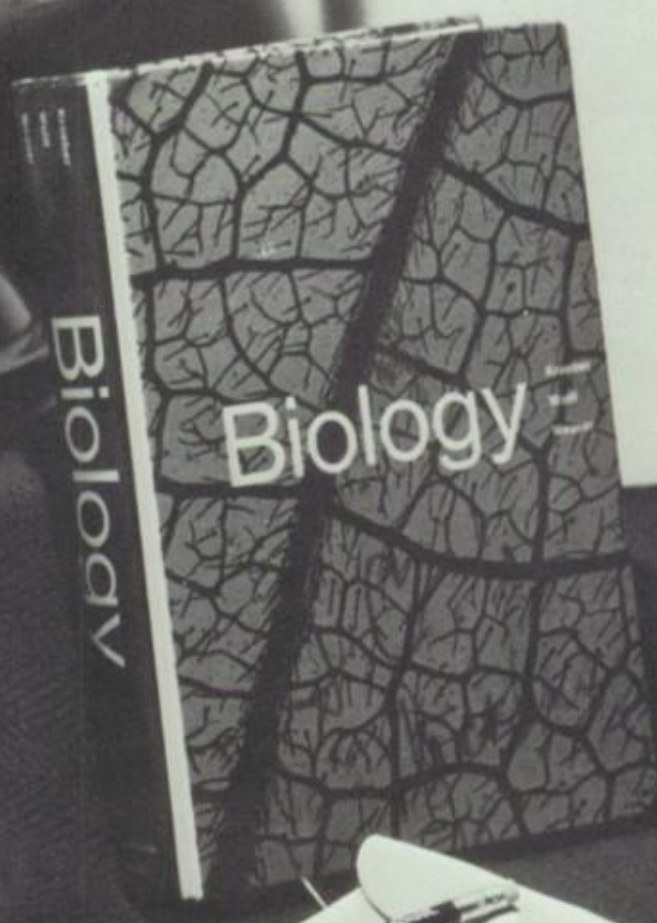

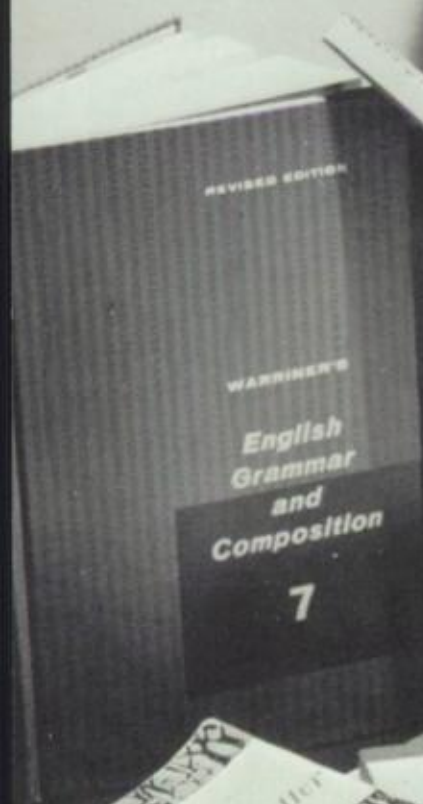

The tomorrows after days when sore muscles and tired feet didn't stop the basketball, track, baseball, and golf teams from blending individuals into all-out team efforts. Despite the fact that we didn't capture all the section crowns, we never failed to display that Greyhound enthusiasm and spunk at every game.

... In the tomorrows ahead—

The prom, the day after which we can rest, and graduation, the tomorrow after which we are no longer a part of this cycle of tomorrows. These will live in memory only. To all our winning, losing, soothing, challenging, innumerable, inscrutable, tomorrows we tip our hats; we move on.

"Judy"

Time—one year.
Isn't it funny how many friends you can make in that time?

Teruko Ito from Koito-Machi, Japan is one of those friends. We hope her year at WAHS has made as much of an ever-lasting impression on her as it has made on us.

This page is dedicated to our "Judy".
